

In the most powerful and destructive explosive known in this country.

In commenting on the arrests made in connection with the case, Chief of Police Frank Monahan of Jersey City said today:

"These men were subordinates. They did what they had to. We shall try to reach the men really responsible."

That the loss of life was miraculously small as compared with what might be expected from such tremendous explosion was asserted by the Jersey City authorities. A number of firemen of that city probably owe their lives to the fact that their hose buckled. They had gone to the point where the kink was when the first explosion occurred, leaving only two men at the nozzle. These two men were blown 50 feet.

More than 40 persons are receiving treatment for injuries in their homes or hospitals today. Numerous inquiries have been made for persons unaccounted for since the explosion but the police list of missing narrowed down today to 12. The ruins of the buildings wrecked by the explosion had been completely destroyed. Up to this forenoon it had been impossible to make anything like a systematic inspection of conditions on Black Tom Island. At that time, however, the full effect of the blast was seen. The buildings there were shattered and torn, barges tied at the pier were completely shattered, their upper works being torn away.

On the Jersey shore lay all that remained of many lighters after they had been eaten by flames. When they caught fire and threatened other shipping nearby they were cut loose to burn up.

Fire is still burning in part of the wreckage today. Firemen said that a week will pass before the flames will burn themselves out. Every few moments the flames reaches one of the many three-inch shells that are scattered about and a sharp report follows. For the most part the shrapnel flies into the air.

The scene of the explosion is like a bit of the western front in France. About 28 blocks have been gouged out to a depth of 30 to 40 feet and water from the bay is making a lake of the hole. Twisted pieces of steel, and not many of them—remain to suggest what happened.

Of the 25 storage houses which a few hours ago stretched a mile along Black Tom Island and the filled-in ground that connected it with the mainland, only four and a half are left. One great concrete grain elevator stands also, but its interior is ruined and there is doubt if the walls can be used again.

There is a likelihood, in the opinion of firemen and officials, that all the dead will never be accounted for. The explosion that destroyed the cars and buildings and excavated the acres of land, without doubt blew some workmen to bits. The bodies of such as were blown into the bay will appear again in a few days.

The Jersey City police have drawn a line about the approach to the scene of the explosion, through which no one can pass without giving a good account of himself. A score of policemen remained at the scene under Lieutenant Shugrue all night and this morning their places were taken by others under Inspector Lennan.

The salvage of millions of dollars worth of merchandise began early, when C. E. Jacobs, general supervisor of the department of bridges and construction of the Lehigh Valley railroad arrived with three work trains and 300 laborers. He first looked after $2,000,000 worth of wheat which remained in barges beside the ruined grain elevator. His forces will be increased by 500 more men within a few hours.

He said that in the destroyed warehouse, $5,000,000 worth of fine Havana tobacco assigned to Germany were stored.

This tobacco was to have been shipped as soon as war conditions would permit. It, however, formed only a small part of the contents of the buildings.

The Rev. Father John Mizer, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, celebrated mass this morning at the church, over the body of Arthur Glenn, who died Friday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Glenn, of 911 East Kibby street. Interment was at Gethsemani.

DISORDERLY CASE MAY UNSEAT JUDGE

The case against Miss McClain, which was to have been heard in criminal court this morning was postponed until tomorrow. She was arrested a week ago on a charge of conducting a disorderly house. Attorney Downing, counsel for the defendant, states that he intends to test the constitutionality of the appointment of W. P. Anderson, as acting criminal judge during the absence of Emmett Jackson.

Downing contends that the mayor of the city has no right to appoint the successor to Jackson, who is on a leave of absence. According to information he has found after investigation he claims that the bill specifically states that in case of vacancy, by death, resignation or other wise, the governor is to appoint the successor.

GERMAN TRIPLANE WILL FLY TO U.S. IN ABOUT 30 HOURS

World to be Startled by Trip of Triple Screw Machine.

Length of Hull 75 Feet, and Airship to Travel 120 Miles an Hour.

NEW YORK, July 31.—German engineers, having started the world by sending to the United States a merchant submarine boat, is said by reliable authority to be preparing further to excite admiration by launching the two countries through a trans-Atlantic air service.

It is definitely known that German aeronautics has perfect a huge triplane, which is of sufficient power and endurance to cross the Atlantic. Tests of this aircraft have proved its possibilities, and it is declared, the exact date of the flying blockade runner's arrival depends only upon propitious atmospheric conditions.

The giant air vessel will carry several tons of mail, a crew of 15 or 20 and gasoline sufficient for a 7,000 mile journey. The machine, the International News Service informant states, will be sent on its way from the base at Heligoland. It is expected the running time to America will be about 30 hours.

Official announcement of this promised spectacular achievement, it is stated, has been delayed in hope the Bremen, the second merchant submarine would bring more complete information and perhaps some photographs.

Specifications Are Given.
The following specifications of the triplane are given:

Weight of triplane, fully equipped, 35,000 pounds.
Length of hull, 75 feet.
Beam, 22 feet.
Speed, 120 miles an hour.
Capacity of fuel tanks, 7,000 gallons of gasoline.

The superstructure, according to the description given, consists of three superposed planes, each having a span of 150 feet. A pontoon is attached to the tip of each lower plane. Two hydroplanes, pneumatic life preservers and fire extinguishers will be conveniently carried for use in case of accident. The lower plant consists of six 250-horsepower motors. Each motor can be operated as a separate power plant in case of injury to any single one.

The aerial project is said to be fostered by Albert Ballin, president of the Hamburg-American line. In a way it is the answer to the line to the enterprise of the North German Lloyd line in sending the first submarine merchantman to the western hemisphere.

FIFTY SOCIALIST DELEGATES MEET

Congressional, Senatorial and County Tickets Are Named; One Vacancy

Scott Wilkins, former mayor of St. Marys, candidate for governor two years ago, was named yesterday by the socialists as a candidate for congress. Fifty delegates from the counties composing the Fourth district attended the convention. It will take nearly 600 names on a petition to put Wilkins on the ballot. The members of the party residing in Allen endorsed the following county ticket:

Representative—S. L. Newman.
Auditor—N. J. Siper.
Prosecuting Attorney—Edwin Blank.
Treasurer—John M. Smith.
Clerk of Courts—E. E. Cook.
Probate Judge—E. V. Holmden.
Sheriff—Dee G. Smith.
Recorder—E. O. McPherson.
Commissioners—Fred Berger, Sr.; Elmer Diller, Blanton, Horace Rogers, Perry township.
Coroner—George Meeks.

The party must file a petition with 142 names to get their nominees on the ticket.

The county convention as well as the district convention was dominated by union labor men who claim 2500 organized workers in Lima alone and as many more in Piqua, Sidney and St. Marys.

Louis Waterman of New Bremen, was nominated for state senator. The socialists missed a chance to nominate another candidate for senator.

After returning from a two weeks outing at Mackinac island and Bay View, Mich., Mrs. George P. Conner was called to Cincinnati on account of the serious illness of her grandson.

GERMANS AT VERDUN ARE REPULSED

northern France last night and this morning British and French co-operated in an action north of the Somme in front of Guillemont and Maurois.

For the past few days the one word on everybody's tongue had been "visibility" which has universally come into use since Admiral Jellicoe's first fleet dispatch.

Formerly the artillery spoke of good and bad light.

Persistent bad light or "low visibility" which would not permit the gunners to register their targets, had delayed any important infantry efforts. It became better yesterday as the heat grey tropical and offensive operations were renewed.

Every day the Germans are increasing the numbers of men and guns in the Guillemont sector which was among the last portions of high ground they held.

By the prisoners taken and identified it is shown that there are ten German battalions or 10,000 men at a front of 2,000 yards where the Germans are still in their old second line fortifications with a maze of trenches and deep dugouts built long ago and strengthened since the offensive began.

The Germans appear to regard it as of critical importance since the British broke through the second line adjoining that front for a length of two miles on July 14.

In an attack the Germans tried to man their machine guns after the British had bombarded their position. The Germans fought in the boiling sun. The British' got possession of the railroad station which they had reached in a previous attack and this time, according to last reports, they are still holding it.

Some got into Guillemont, reaching the church where the Germans, swarming from their dugouts, outnumbered the gallant advance party which fought the foe on all sides in one of those hand to hand, hide and seek conflicts in the village ruins with indescribable ferocity.

The British had to retire to the edge of Guillemont but made a good and considerable advance southward on the flank of the town where, through the hot night, fighting continues to hold their gains.

The perspiration made white courses in the dust on the men's faces and they eyes looked out as though a mask so thick was the coating on their moist faces.

Motor truck passed like pranks in the thick clouds on the road. Gunners stripped kept on sending their guns at top speed and breath came hard in the mixture of dust and shell smoke.

Soldiers who reached Guillemont speak of the fearful carnage among the Germans from the British gun fire owing to the masses of Germans concentrated under the concentration of the British artillery bombardment before the infantry attack, and of hearing moans of the German wounded for water amidst the bombing, rifle and machine gun fire. With the news of the shooting of Captain Flyatt of the captured British steam Brussels, fresh in their minds the British went into the charge with a fury swearing they would avenge his murder.

ROTARIANS WIND UP CONVENTION WORK

W. R. Mehaffey Tells of Agriculture in State of Virginia.

Finishing details of various business matters left over from the recent Cincinnati convention of the International Rotary Club were disposed of at the noonday luncheon today by the local organization, including a vote of thanks to the Queen City Rotarians organization, and to the Dayton branch for their entertainment during the convention week.

W. H. Moore, local committee chairman in charge of the details, and President Henry G. Wemmer reported for the delegation which represented Lima Rotarians. H. P. Campbell spoke with reference to the need of better lighting, a matter which he brought up a week ago and which was referred to the World-While committee. Chairman T. P. Riddle of that committee stated that no report would be ready for a week or two.

W. R. Mehaffey, formerly of Lima but now farming near Fredericktown, Virginia, narrated the advantages which southern agriculture offers. Eugene Epley, recently returned from a transcontinental trip via Lincoln Highway and other western routes, told of a record which he made between Sioux City, Iowa, and Chicago, a distance of 524 miles. The trip was made in 19 hours, between 3:30 a. m. and 10:30 p. m.

Guests at the meeting were Attorney W. L. Parmenter, guest of Watson Meyers, and O. F. Brooks, of Chicago. Henry C. Hammett, a new member, made his initial appearance. First Vice President Davis J. Cable presided. During August the meetings will be in charge of Secretary and Vice President Emmett R. Curtin.

THE IDLER

The forty-one fresh air children, from the fresh air camp and hospital of Cleveland, who have been enjoying themselves at Elida and thereabouts for the past two weeks, left for their home today. They arrived over the Ohio Electric line at 1:50 this afternoon from Elida and had a few hours to spend here before they left over the Western Ohio at 3:20 for Cleveland.

Miss Kate Carter was removed from the City hospital to her home at 1026 Richie avenue today. Miss Carter is a teacher in the Lima schools.

Mrs. Fred Shockey, who was overcome by heat while at the transfer station on Saturday, was taken to her home at 717 East Elm street, by the Williams and Davis ambulance.

Posters placed in the stations of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad call attention of passengers to the removal of troops to the border and urge they be content with the equipment now in use on this road. Sleepers and passenger coaches are both needed to transfer the troops. The railroad company gives this as the cause of the use of inferior equipment now. They want the public to look at the matter from a patriotic standpoint and not censure the railroad company.

The Rev. L. D. Wert, of the Christian church at Cairo, occupied the pulpit at Buckland, Sunday, in exchange with the Rev. James Aeg, pastor at Buckland, who preached in the Cairo Christian church. The Rev. Mr. Wert and his family were in Lima today, en route to their home.

L. G. Neely, of St. Marys, of the Neely-Clover Company, one of the prominent oil operators of this part of the country, predicts that the drop in oil prices will reach 50 cents a barrel within the next few months. The first drop of 10 cents was noticeable Friday. The drop in prices started in Texas a week ago and is extending over Louisiana, Oklahoma and Kansas, crossing the Mississippi. The 10 cents reduction on Friday affected all grades in the central states, including Lima, Indiana, Wooster, Illinois, Princeton and Plymouth.

Allie Cain, of Washington township, Auglaize county, and Lula Mildred Howell, of St. Marys, are new patients at the District Tuberculosis hospital, southwest of the city.

E. C. Lewis and Jamison and Hoover, of Lima, are bidders on the paving of Westminster street in Waynesfield. Jamison and Hoover bid $22,708.43 for paving on a five-inch concrete foundation and $2,926.65 on a six-inch foundation. Lewis bid for five-inch foundation, $22,259.24 and for six-inch foundation, $22,986.64. Lewis is low bidder on the five-inch foundation, tying with a firm from Wapakoneta. He may be awarded the contract.

Mrs. William Friedly, of 713 East High street, will return tomorrow from Lorain and Cleveland, where she has been visiting sisters of her husband Master Donald Friedly, who has been spending the summer there, will return with her.

The case of Hannah M. against Adolph Rabie for divorce, heard in part Saturday before Judge John P. Bailey, in the court of common pleas, was continued and will be concluded before Judge Bailey this week. About a dozen witnesses will testify.

MRS. ELIZABETH KIEL CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. Elizabeth Kiel, 78 years old, died this morning at her home in the rear of 314 South Main street, at 3:30 o'clock, after an illness extending over some years, seven of which she was confined to her bed. She came to Lima from Landeck and was a member of St. John's Catholic parish.

Surviving children are Jennie and Sylvester Kiel, of Drumright, Okla.; James Kiel, Mrs. William Hotz and Mrs. Frank Pohlman, residing south of Landeck; Mrs. Davis, of Lima, and Louis Kiel, of Toledo.

Mass will be celebrated at St. John's church Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock. The body will be accompanied to Landeck, where, in the Catholic church at 10 o'clock, mass will be said for the dead. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery in Landeck.

COURT NEWS

The cost of the proposed School Bond Issue has been carefully figured. You will observe from the following table that the cost will be annually only 80 cents on each thousand dollars of property valuation. The city has grown so large that this amount is comparatively small. This is certainly true in the light of the purpose it is to serve. This bond issue is designed to meet not only the present, but the future needs of the schools. It will guarantee to every child in this city his birth-right, in free America, of opportunity with every other child for a good education. If the schools have outgrown the present buildings by approximately 1200 children in the last five years, what of the next five? Certainly no man who believes in free public institutions can oppose the proposed means of making our own schools adequate to the needs of our own children.

Figure the cost to you.

Figure what it means to yours and your neighbor's children—safe and adequate schools.

Figure—whether you should think less of our boys and girls than you do of our streets.

The cost is only 80 cents on each $1000; or 8 cents on $100 of property valuation.

What will it cost you?

Teutons Lose Initiative In Second Year of War

Germany Now on Defensive After Series of Advances East and West.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Germany is on the defensive. The initiative has passed to the entente allies. This is the one great outstanding fact of the second year of the great war.

Before, she aimed a blow where she pleased and the allies parried it as best they might. She seized most of Belgium and a seventh of France. Twice she overwhelmed the Russians who had penetrated East Prussia.

She smashed her way far into the car's dominions and crushed Serbia and Montenegro. She directed a fearful battering ram of shells and human bodies on Verdun.

But with the present summer a sweeping change came over the aspect of military affairs.

Co-operating through the allies war council with General Joseph Joffre at its head, the Italians beat back the Austrian columns in the Trentino, the Russians drove the Teutons before them in the east with horrible destruction and the British and French began a slow and methodical heading of the long established lines in the west.

These are the movements which are still going on as the war enters its third and, according to Lord Kitchener's delphic prediction, final year. Whether the Kaiser will relieve himself, again seize the initiative and enter on new campaigns of conquest cannot be foretold. One thing is certain, the two largest empires of the earth, Russia and Great Britain, are at last fully organized for war against him.

On the first anniversary of the war, August 1, 1915, the Austro-German sweep of Poland was in full swing. Lublin fell that day; Cholm Aug. 2; Warsaw Aug. 6; Ivangorod Aug. 7; Serock Aug. 9; Lomza Aug. 11; Siedles and Sokolow Aug. 14; Kovno Aug. 19; Novo Georgievsk Aug. 21; Ossowie Aug. 24; Kovell Aug. 25; Brest Litovsk Aug. 27; Citta Aug. 28; Lutsk Sept. 2; Brody Sept. 3; Grodno Sept. 4; Dubno Sept. 10; Pinsk Sept. 17 and Vilna Sept. 20.

It seems to neutral observers nothing could stop the Teutons in the East and it was generally believed the invaders had themselves chosen the line extending from just west of Riga nearly straight south to Roumania on which they spent the winter.

Even when on Sept. 8 the czar took command of all his armies in person, won a victory near Tarnopol September 16, and recaptured Lutsk September 20 and Czartorysk October 20, few believed the Russians could revive. Lutsk was soon lost again and on October 25 the Germans stormed Ulhut. Then things settled down for the winter and almost every neutral critic thought the spring would see a resumption of the Teuton drive.

On October 8, the Teutons crossed the Serbian border at many points and five days later the Bulgarians, newcomers in the war, invaded from the east. Fighting desperately but hopelessly the Serbians were pressed back by torrents of heavy shells to which they could not reply and on November 29 the German general was able proudly to announce that the operations against Serbia had ended in complete success, while Austria at the same time was finishing off Montenegro.

But unsuccessful as the year 1915 had been to the allies in the field, their will to conquer did not waver. At the moment early in December when the German imperial chancellor was making a clear offer of peace in a speech to the Reichstag, the representatives of German's enemies were meeting in a new war council at Paris, resolved to redouble their herculean efforts and never compromise.

On December 21 David Lloyd-George, the strongest man in England, declared Great Britain faced defeat unless greater efforts were made; and just a week later he demanded general conscription, threatening to resign if this measure were not put into effect.

The conscription bill passed its first reading in the house of commons January 6 and spring saw it in full force. Premier Asquith was able to announce that England's total effort was five million men.

Meanwhile in the east a greater giant was nursing his wounds and regaining his strength in four-fold degree.

A forewarning came to the world on February 17, when Erzerum was taken. On April 19 the great Black sea port of Trebizond fell and two days later the first Russian contingent landed in France. Still the German writers would not believe and it took the magnificent Russian drive of June, which won all of Bukovina and a large slice of Volhynia and Galicia to convince them that Russia was again a force to be reckoned with.

To understand this phenomenon of Russian resurrection it is necessary to realize not only that the Russians now have the heavy artillery and shells they lacked in the great retreat, but that their losses in numbers better them not at all.

Seven million young men have come of military age in Russia since the war began and of these at least five million are fit for duty. Despite her gigantic losses it is quite possible there are more soldiers and potential soldiers in Russia today than when the war started. Certainly there are now and will be for many years to come all the "cannon fodder" that can be utilized at the front.

Erroneously considering the Western front the more dangerous, the German general staff on February 21 began a heavy attack on the fortress of Verdun, with the object of using up French ammunition and men until no allied offensive would be possible this year.

Being on the outside of a curved line they were able to place more guns and manoeuvre more freely than their opponents and month after month they drew close to the now famous little city.

Whether their gains were victorious or defeats will only be known after the war when we learn the number of killed and wounded they paid for each point. They advanced, but were never able to stampede the defenders.

Perhaps Verdun will be the last great German offensive. Certainly today the Teutons have their hands full stemming the Russian advances, which is penetrating Transylvania, and the Anglo-French pounding attack along the Somme.

The Austrians, who in the latter half of May debouched from the Trentino and almost gained the foothills and smiling plains of Italy, are also content to stand and ward off the blows of the Italians, after giving up most of their gains.

The year saw the Germans lose their Cameroon colony in January, while Columns of Belgians, French and British close in on the stout defenders of the East African colony, the last of the Kaiser's overseas possessions.

In Mesopotamia the British, penetrating to within seven miles of Baghdad, were defeated and forced to retreat, being finally besieged in Kut-el-Amara on December 10. A relieving expedition was unsuccessful and on April 30, the garrison capitulated.

STATE PRIMARY NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY BY OHIO SOVEREIGNS

Candidates Going Through Motions That Attract Little Attention From the Voters.

COLUMBUS, O., July 31.—The opening of the last week of the apathetic primary campaign finds little to arouse the voter's interest in other than the fight for the republican nomination for United States senator which, although it has four entrants, seems to have developed into a duel between Myron T. Herrick and Harry M. Daugherty.

While former Senator Charles W. Dick of Akron, and E. L. Cassel, a Richland county farmer have given spasmodic evidences of fight through an occasional speech or a volley of literature, neither has opened state headquarters here nor made a systematic effort to organize workers in each of the 88 counties.

On the other hand Herrick and Daugherty have perfected organizations which include all precincts in some counties and touch most of the wards and townships in others. Both have struggled hard for the endorsement of party organizations and newspapers.

In the democratic quarters Senator Atlee Pomerene has been busy in Washington while former Congressman John J. Lentz of Columbus, has been hurling verbal brickbats at his record here and there in the Buckeye state. Pomerene's managers are sanguine of his nomination.

The waters in the gubernatorial streams have remained placid. A. P. Sandies of Ottawa, causes a few ripples in the democratic creek now and then by verbal attacks, but Cox doesn't deign to reply as he feels sure his canoe will pull in safely at port Nomination.

The situation on republican brook is somewhat similar. Governor Willis is reminded only occasionally that mines have been planted for him by Rudolph A. Mack, former attorney for the Anti-Saloon league in Cincinnati, and George W. Shaw of Cleveland, whose brother was removed from a state job by the governor. His managers are so sure of his renomination that they are keeping him off of the stump.

Both parties have interesting fights on for lieutenant governor. On the republican side an attempt is being made to ditch Lieutenant Governor John H. Arnold, who, the organization men say, broke the state in 1914 because his name was first on the ballot. An opponent they have trotted out Abram Agler of Stark county, who'll appear ahead of Arnold on the ballot.

While the democratic organization is behind Senator E. J. Hoppie of Cleveland, for lieutenant governor, it is fearing the alphabetical advantage of Earl D. Bloom of Bowling Green. Other candidates are Senator D. L. Sutter of Cleveland, an anti-organization man and George W. Tool of Columbus.

On the republican ticket there are no other contests for nomination except for state auditor. Secretary of State Charles Q. Hildebrandt of Wilmington, State Treasurer Rudy W. Archer of Belmont county, and Attorney General Edward C. Turner of Columbus, are unopposed.

In the auditorship race C. D. Conover of Urbana, speaker of the house of representatives, and Senator Jacob J. Wise of Massillon, are counting on aid from state assemblymen. Stephen Stillwell of Lebanon, has made a state-wide campaign in an automobile placarded with his picture and armed with a steam calliope; Joseph T. Tracey of Portsmouth, quit his job in the state bureau of accounting to throw his energies into the fight and George C. Braden of Warren, has been very much in evidence.

The fight of the democratic nomination for secretary of state seemingly has simmered down to a battle between two former state legislators—Thornton R. Snyder of Cincinnati, and William A. Weygand of Wooster. The former has the endorsement of former Governor

Harmon. Others after the nomination are ex-representative W. D. Fulton of Newark, Carl F. Antenen of Hamilton, and former State Librarian John H. Newman of Miami, who ran for the same office a decade ago.

State Auditor Donahoe is unopposed but Joseph McGhee of Jackson, the candidate in 1914, has opposition for nomination for attorney general from Scott Stahl of Port Clinton. Stahl is considered the organization's choice.

MOTORCYCLIST HAS SKULL FRACTURED

Kerr Fulton of Sidney, had his skull fractured and his jaw broken, when he was run over by an automobile near Russell's Point, yesterday. Fulton was riding his motorcycle at a point about 28 miles from Lima and near Russell's Point.

A load of automobilists were traveling just in the rear of Fulton. When he fell from his cycle their machine struck him. He was removed to the City hospital in the Williams and Davis invalid coach.

It was announced today at the hospital that Fulton's condition is serious. He may not recover.

POP CORN MACHINE INJURES YOUNG MAN

Harley Hull, residing at 687 South Metcalf street, was injured yesterday when a piece of iron from a pop-corn machine struck him, as he was walking in East Market street, near the Harrod House. The gasoline with which the pop-corn machine was operated, exploded, hurling pieces of the machine in all directions. He was removed to the City hospital by the Williams & Davis Company, where he was given surgical treatment, after which he was able to return to his home.

STOMACH FULL OF GAS, LIVER NOT ACTING?

A Wineglassful of Tollo Water Will Start Your Liver and Relieve Your Stomach in Half an Hour.

The liver frequently becomes clogged because we eat too much rich food and take too little exercise. If it is kept clean and active we would never have sour, gassy stomachs, sallow skin or become constipated and bilious.

Strong drugs are dangerous, they weaken the system. A third of a tumbler of Tollo Water in a glass of plain water before breakfast will flush out all the bile and waste matter from your system in half an hour. Your headache will disappear at once, your eyes will become bright and clear, your meals will no longer distress you by forming gas that bloats the stomach.

Tollo is a concentrated water from Dawson Springs, the famous Kentucky health resort. Its occasional use will keep the liver active because it flushes, really bathes, the liver, dissolving the obstructions and washing out the bile tubes. It will keep the bowels regular as a clock and prevent the accumulation of waste which sours in the stomach and makes every meal a torture. Get a 15-cent bottle from your druggist and take a little every morning until the system has been thoroughly cleaned.

REMODEL THE OLD HOME INTO APARTMENTS.

The old place gives you comfort. Make it also give you an income. Very often the arrangement of the old home will allow for fine improvements at small cost. I will send you necessary papers and instructions upon receipt of thirty (30c) cents to pay for cost of papers and postage.

AMBULANCE TRIPS

The Williams and Davis invalid coach made the following transfers Saturday night:

Harlow Hermann, son of Dr. Hermann, was removed from the City hospital to the home of his father at 409 East Market street.

Ida Snyder was taken from the City hospital to her home at 330 West Vine street.

The Eckert invalid coach removed Mrs. Fritz from the City hospital to her home near South Warsaw, Saturday night.

FOR MOTHERS

The New York World, in an editorial printed Friday, offers to the mothers of militia boys some ideas which should be included in the modern conception of patriotism, and which tend, incidentally, to cast a little light on the president's Mexican policy. The editorial is headed "Mrs. Henry Smith's Son". The text follows:

Mrs. Henry Smith of Winamac, Ind., wrote a letter to President Wilson complaining of the hardships her son was compelled to undergo as a member of the National Guard on duty in Texas.

The president, in his reply, has explained to her that the National Guard is at the border "not for the purpose of drill, but for the purpose of protecting the country," and that he "cannot believe that the men of the National Guard would wish to be excused from it, or would lose heart because of the discomforts and inconvenience of the service."

If Mrs. Henry Smith were a wise woman she would not be writing to the president bewailing the trifling hardships to which her son is obliged to submit as a member of the National Guard. She would be down on her knees thanking God that the president is exerting every honorable effort to bring about a peaceful solution of the difficulties with Mexico, and that her boy is not already out on the firing line with the boys of 400,000 other American mothers.

The hardships to which the National Guard is subjected on the Texas frontier are about equal to the hardships of an ordinary strenuous vacation in the Maine or the Minnesota woods; but war is serious business. When Mrs. Henry Smith thinks about the petty inconveniences to which her son is subjected, let her think also of the millions of boys in Europe who are in the trenches and who are dying daily by the thousand in the midst of the most ghastly warfare known to human history.

Let her think of the boys lying on the field with arms blown off, or legs blown off, or faces blown off, perishing in horrible agony for the lack of medical assistance which cannot reach them.

Let her think of the millions of boys in Europe who after this war is over will be crippled for life or with health shattered, doomed to eke out a wretched existence as hopeless invalids.

Let her think of the millions of mothers who are not worrying because their boys have to eat army rations, but who are worried day and night lest they will never see their boys again alive.

Let her try to visualize the hourly horrors of a war in which 8,000,000 or 10,000,000 men have already been killed or wounded—most of them boys like her boy.

Then let her remember that except for the statesmanship of Woodrow Wilson the body of her own son might be lying today in an unmarked grave in Flanders or France.

Mrs. Henry Smith, with true maternal solicitude, naturally thinks it is a great nuisance that her boy should have to sweeter in the heat of a Texas summer and live off of coarse food, and so it is, but the troubles of her son are very small in comparison with what they would be if the United States had undertaken armed intervention in Mexico. Her own troubles, too, are very small in comparison with what they would be if she were watching the newspapers every day for the lists of dead and wounded in the fighting.

There are millions of Mrs. Henry Smiths in this country with boys who would be subject to military duty if the United States went to war. When they are disposed to find fault with the policies of the president, let them devote a little prayerful consideration to the millions of Mrs. Henry Smiths in Europe whose boys are now only memories. But for President Wilson these American mothers would be drinking the bitter dregs of that same cup.

Congress may not adjourn until October 1, says a Washington dispatch. The nation is having all sorts of hard luck this year.

WANTED—AN ISSUE

Before the evening is over Charles Evans Hughes will know that he is the Republican nominee for the presidency, as the formal ceremony of notification is to be enacted at Carnegie Hall, New York. With Crane, Penrose, Barnes and a few other "Progressives" of the Alexander Hamilton type on the stage, the Man With The Facial Foliage will be informed that there was a convention in Chicago last month.

There is some excuse for this seemingly foolish ceremony, aside from the preservation of traditional form. The notification gives the candidate an excellent opportunity to declare his attitude on the great questions of the day, to outline the line of attack and to launch the issues which are to be dominant during the campaign. In this respect the notification of the former justice will be watched with a peculiar interest.

If Hughes has an issue he has kept it carefully concealed and may be ready to uncock something this evening. Since the failure of his assault on the administration, written while he was still on the bench and delivered within ten minutes after his nomination, to make an impression, the G. O. P. candidate has been searching the acts of the Wilson regime with a microscope, an X-ray and a fine tooth comb. If he has found a weak spot it is to be disclosed this evening.

The federal reserve act is too popular—outside of Wall Street. It is unsafe to attack that. The same is true of the currency bill and the child labor measure. The two most progressive men on the supreme bench, Clarke and Brandeis, are Wilson appointees. The Underwood tariff is a success and attempts to blame the present prosperity on the war are futile in view of the fact that Republicans refused to blame the first depression on the war.

The assertion that Wilson has been weak toward Mexico is a declaration of war. Hughes dares not say that—too many mothers vote in the Western states. To sneer at the "too proud to fight" remark is to call for an attack on Germany, and Hughes wants the German-Hyphen-American vote. To accuse the president of failure to protect American lives in Chihuahua and Sonora is to mourn the lost leader of the Republican party as now constituted, Victoriano Huerta. This is also the cry of such unpatriotic figures as Hearst and the conservadores who brought trouble and paid Villa to force American intervention—and annexation. That won't do for Hughes.

Maybe the nominee has a platform. We would like to look it over. Tomorrow morning we'll know whether Hughes is running on a definite policy or limiting his campaign to vague hints and indefinite references.

Will some Republican spell-binder kindly explain how the 57 per cent increase in building improvements in the northwest this year is due to the European war?

GOOD EVENING: It's not so hot. How would you like to be a candidate, jumping four-foot ditches, crossing ploughed fields, being chased by bulls and bulldogs, shaking hands all day and wearing a smile in spite of it?

Women Fast Becoming as Responsible as Men In All Walks of Life

No Longer Satisfied to be Petted, Privileged Dependents of Husbands and Brothers. Even Now Regarded as Most Reliable Witnesses in Courts of Law.

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

WOMAN in business is very much distressed by having the statement made to her that the word of our sex was not held in high esteem in the legal world, and that from almost every standpoint woman was regarded by man as a rather irresponsible being.

Until the last quarter of a century woman was what man made her, with his laws and restrictions and traditions. Yet even with all those handicaps she has left a remarkable record upon the books of history.

In every walk of life, in every art and sphere, woman has made her shining mark. During the last 25 years her progress has been less impeded by the debris of old traditions and she has sped forward upon the broadening road of progress with astonishing rapidity.

Comments and criticisms such as my correspondent repeats are scarcely worth remembering or refuting. Man compelled woman to prevaricate about herself for so many centuries that if she has still the tendency to withhold the truth or to distort it at times we need not wonder.

Man hid her away from all knowledge of the great issues of life so long and kept her in ignorance for fear she would know herself and him too well that we should not be surprised if she is still unable to grasp real conditions of life as readily as he is.

Realization of Personal Responsibility Has Only Begun to Dawn on Woman.

A realization of personal responsibility has only begun to dawn upon woman. She still thinks of herself, to a great extent, as the privileged being—where self-dependence is concerned—that man educated her to believe was God's intent when she was formed.

Without question, woman does not keep appointments of a business nature as promptly or regard obligations as seriously as the majority of men do. Few business women are as thorough as men in their work, and their methods are less direct, less positive. Women are usually more nervous than men, and consequently less agreeable to deal with.

It is only the exceptional woman who possesses the power of concentration, which is one of the first qualities a man develops in business. Women scatter their forces in a thousand avenues where men concentrate them. Women have not yet learned to know the value of time in business matters as men perceive its value.

Tactful and agreeable in social life, in business woman rarely shows these qualities to the same degree; the most blundering man exhibits them in his dealings with his fellows.

She is often brusque with her own sex, and indifferent with the other, mistaking both attitudes for poise in the business world. Woman still expects privileges and benefits to be granted her because she is a woman. But all these peculiarities will be outgrown with the passage of time and the increasing opportunities allowed her for the cultivation of her full powers. Here are a few suggestions for every woman who has started upon a business career and who wishes to prove herself as successful as her male competitors.

Let her put down in her notebook these qualities as worthy of cultivation:

A sense of responsibility to fill her position with dignity and exactness.

A realization of the value of time, her own and that of others.

Promptness in keeping engagements.

A purely business point of view regarding debts, with no idea of sex privileges or benefits.

The value of affability and the necessity for tact in business affairs.

The need of controlling the nerves and nervous actions.

A fine sense of honor, of truthfulness, and a desire for thoroughness. Meantime here is what is reported by Mr. Borst, a French philosopher, who has been experimenting with men and women in the matter of creditability of evidence. The experimenter used 24 persons, 12 of each sex, in his investigation.

After ending the tests, which covered several weeks, as the subjects were examined repeatedly, Mr. Borst tabulated the results.

She noted false answers, correct answers, answers certain and uncertain, correct or wrong answers given under oath. She thus discovered the extent of evidence given, its faithfulness, the assurance of the witness, the influence of the oath upon him or her.

These are her chief conclusions: Woman Sees More Details Than Man and Remembers Them Better

Entirely faithful evidence is the exception every witness supplying from his or her imagination the omissions of memory.

About 10 per cent of the statements in a voluntary deposition are wrong.

Depositions brought about by suggestions are longer than voluntary ones—fuller, that is, of detail—but less reliable.

Evidence improves by practice. Women are more truthful witnesses than men.

About one-twelfth of the statements in a deposition under oath are incorrect.

Mr. Borst's investigation simply bears out, in a scientific manner, the idea that woman sees more details than man, and remembers them better.

It is an interesting discovery. This would indicate that "the woman in business" has been misunderstood regarding the legal status of woman's word the world over.

RUBS BRING BABY RELIEF FROM COLIC

One of the dangers to be guarded against in babies during hot weather is colic. It is well for the mother to be able to recognize when a child has been seized with colic.

Usually it lies with its knees drawn up and the thighs bent on the abdomen.

Cause by Gas.

Colic is caused by an accumulation of gas in the bowels and is the result of indigestion. Hence the need of being extremely careful regarding a baby's food in summer.

The gas may be expelled by gentle massage. To do this place one hand on the right side of the abdomen, passing the hand slowly, straight across from right to left and down on the left side.

Continue these movement until their purpose has been accomplished.

Other Methods.

When the pain is great, other methods of relief must be resorted to. This may be accomplished by taking two pieces of flannel, wringing them out of hot water and applying them alternately as nearly continuously as possible.

Before applying, however, remember to rub the abdomen with vaseline so as not to burn the tender skin.

Afterward, the abdomen should be covered with a generous piece of dry flannel or absorbent cotton. A dose of castor oil is then needed to complete the cure.

Words of Praise For Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. John Miller, Kansas, Ind. "It cured me of a severe cold on the lungs and an aggravating cough. I have recommended this remedy to a great many people who have used it and have nothing but words of praise for it. Obtainable everywhere."

WORK

For the Good of Lima

May Be Positive or Negative

We can aid the growth of the city by doing many things. But we can also aid by refusing to do or permit some things.

We all realize that the efforts of a united citizenry to develop the city we call our home will result in the expansion of Lima and of Lima's prosperity. We know, too, that to make this a great city each must do his share. But are you aware that there is another way in which we must aid the city? It is by refusing to encourage detrimental innovations.

One of the things Lima citizens can do for the city is to protect it from the designs of those who would, by Utopian schemes of evident impracticability, involve the city treasury in undeserved trouble. We can do as much for the community by negative as by positive means.

An example of the projects against which Lima should be protected is that aimed at the conversion of the local telephone system into a municipal plant. The program is that of condemnation and purchase by the issue of mortgage bonds. Such trifling details as the lack of demand for bonds based on an untested law are omitted from the claims outlined.

The proposal promises everything imaginable except the big essential factor in which all are interested—SERVICE. Impossible pledges and out-of-the-question assurances are offered in abundance—but NO GUARANTEES.

WEATHER — Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday; not quite so warm in northern portion.BETTER ART FOR THE CHILDREN.

"WHAT has art done for children?" This question was put not long ago to Walter Crane, the famous English illustrator who has done so much to educate the childish appreciation of the beautiful. The enormous progress in the quality of the art in children's books and magazines and toys during the last few years has been due in great measure to his efforts.

"When we began to work for better illustrations and to inaugurate the change from the distorted little wood cuts and the crude, often vulgar pictures that used to be," said Mr. Crane, "we simply followed our individual tastes and artistic knowledge to the end that children's books should be more beautiful. We worked as artists, and we thought chiefly of the delight to ourselves and the children of charming, well-drawn illustrations, not of any theoretical good that might accrue to them in later years, as a result of our efforts. Yet the standard was quickly raised and now the magazines for children are as beautifully and expensively illustrated as the periodicals for their elders.

"Picture books are a necessity to children. They think at first in pictures instead of in words, and learn from them, too. Drawing is a language to the child. Every teacher should be able to draw, so that he or she can illustrate the meaning of a word in the way the children understand best. Parents, too, ought to know how to draw; and, as for the children themselves, they should be taught and encouraged to draw even before they are taught to read.

"The development of beauty in the surroundings of children has spread from books and appropriate wall papers to suitable and artistic furniture, hangings, clothes and toys. Simple but charming design and color are chosen now for the dress of the little folks and for the furnishings of their rooms.

"The temporary tendency toward the grotesque in children's toys is merely an effort to secure novelty and to produce laugh-provoking play things. These absurdities will not last, of course, but nothing can stop the great impetus that art has given to the beautifying of children's surroundings, so that they may from the first be educated in color and design."

SALADS THAT FIT THE SEASON

Golden Ball Salad—Put one quart of fresh cooked tomatoes in a pan with two cloves, two sprigs of parsley, two stalks of celery, two bay leaves, one small sliced onion, one blade of mace, a dash of red pepper, two teaspoons of granulated sugar, and salt to taste. Simmer 15 minutes, strain through a sieve, and add the juice of half a lemon, one dessertspoon of tarragon vinegar, and a little red coloring. Soften a half-box of gelatin half an hour in three-quarters of a cup of water, and add to the mixture. Stir until dissolved and put into molds. Hard-boil six eggs and mix the yolks with one cream cheese, adding salts and paprika, and form into little balls; chop the whites very fine. Unmold the jelly, set on lettuce leaves, put some of the golden balls and some flowers or mayonnaise dressing around the base, sprinkle with the whites, and serve.

Japanese Salad—Take even sized beets which have been cooked, remove the centers, let stand in weak vinegar on ice and fill with chopped celery or diced potato.

Jamaica Fruit Salad—Cut one medium sized pineapple into cubes with three oranges and three bananas. Serve very cold with the following dressing: Two eggs, a quarter of a cup of light colored fruit juice, a quarter cup of sugar and a quarter cup of lemon juice. Beat the egg, add the sugar and fruit juice, stir constantly over the fire until it thickens, cool and serve over the fruit.

Eggplant Salad—Peel young eggplant and put at once into boiling salted water. Cook until tender, turning often with a silver fork. When cold cut into squares, remove the seeds and serve on lettuce leaves with French dressing.

Cream Cheese and Cherry Salad—Beat a cream cheese with enough cream to make a batter, add a little salt and cayenne pepper and some fresh ripe cherries, cut up small. Serve on lettuce, a spoonful to each person.

Spinach Salad—Press boiled spinach into little cups, chill on ice, and serve with rings of beets and French dressing. Press a round of hard-boiled egg in the bottom of the cup before filling with the spinach. When the mold is turned out this ring is embedded in the top.

Yellow Tomato Salad—Scald, peel and chill yellow tomatoes. Put into boiling water and boil for two minutes four green peppers; rub off the skins, split, and take out the seeds and core. Set on lettuce leaves and fill with tomatoes and a French dressing made with tarragon vinegar and onion juice.

Watermelon Salad—With a potato scoop cut rounds from a fine ripe melon. Pile on lettuce leaves and pour a French dressing over them.

Household Suggestions

Ink stains can be removed without injuring the most delicately colored material. Mix some mustard into a thick paste and spread over the stain. After 24 hours sponge thoroughly with cold water, and no trace of the ink remains.

If eggs you are about to boil are cracked, add a little vinegar to the water, and they can be boiled satisfactorily as undamaged ones.

dozen ivy leaves and steep them in boiling water. Leave till cold, then rub well over the stained parts. This liquid will remove all stains and make the cloth look quite fresh.

Don't throw bones that have been boiled for soup into the dustbin. Put them at the back of the fire, bank up with well-damped small coal, and they will burn for hours.

A little camphor rubbed on a mirror after the dust has been wiped off will brighten it wonderfully.

Some Petty Thieving is Unearthed and Ethel Decides to Become Her Own Cook.

"WHAT HAVE you in those packages?" Ralph Gordon stopped the maid's young brother who was coming down the walk from the rear entrance. The little fellow hesitated, stood on one foot and then the other, and finally said:

"I have been to the grocery store."

"As you live on the other side of town it is a peculiar thing that you should bring your groceries 'way out here to take them home. Come in here; I want to see what you have." Ralph took the child by the shoulder and pushed him into the house.

"I met this youngster as I was coming home and as he could give no account of himself I thought I would see what he was carrying away from the house," he explained to Ethel as they entered.

"Now then, young man, display your goods." They opened the package one after the other. There was a sack of sugar, some flour, coffee, rice and half a cake. The child insisted that the groceries were his recent purchases at the grocery store, but the paper bags that contained the articles were rumpled and he could make no explanation of the cake. Clara was called and questioned.

"I did give him the cake to take home. I thought it was all drying up and would be wasted. No one seemed to be eating it."

"It is the first evidence of economy I have seen you display. It is a pity to discourage it," replied Ralph sarcastically. "Now, young man, you sit right down here and you need not leave till I call an officer to search your room," he said, turning to the maid. We went over to the telephone. "It is a mighty lucky thing I met this young man tonight."

The boy fell to weeping, but the maid sat in sullen silence till the officer arrived. All went to the maid's room while the search was made. In the bottom of her trunk they found a number of articles of winter clothing that had not been unpacked from the boxes in the attic. There was an assortment of spoons and napkin rings that had been missing for weeks.

"I can't find my pale blue slippers."

Washington Wins Close Game From Cleveland Club

CLEVELAND, July 31.—Washington won, 2 to 1, from Cleveland in 10 innings yesterday. McBride led off in the tenth with a pop fly to center that Roth and Smith let fall between them. Johnson bunted. Cleveland threw to third, but O'Loughlin called McBride safe. Third baseman Chapman protested and was put out of the game, the first time during his baseball career. McBride then scored on Shank's sacrifice fly. A few pop bottles were thrown at O'Loughlin, but none came close. Police protected him after the game. Center Fielder Speaker sprained his left ankle in making a low running catch in the fourth inning and had to be carried from the field. Cleveland got its run on safe hits, while Washington's first run was the result of Beebe's wildness. Score:

White Sox Athletics.
CHICAGO, July 31.—Chicago batters mangled two Philadelphia pitchers for another double win yesterday, 10 to 1 and 7 to 0. Six double plays helped the White Sox slammers, Cicotte and Wolfcamp, but they were seldom in trouble. A group of citizens of Harvard, Ill., pitcher, Lannings' home town, gave him a watch, and the White Sox pounded him for 15 hits in the opening game. Williams was strong until the sixth, when six hits, including a home run by Jackson, sent six men across. Results of yesterday's games put Boston in first place with 53 won and 40 lost, Chicago in second place with 54 won and 42 lost, and New York in third place with 53 won and 42 lost. Scores:

St. Louis Wins Tenth Straight.
ST. LOUIS, July 31.—St. Louis won its tenth straight game and the fourth straight from New York, taking both games of a double header here yesterday. With St. Louis leading 2 to 1 in the ninth inning of the first game, Pipp, first up, flied out and Oldring and Mullen walked. Nunamaker batted for Boone. With two strikes on Nunamaker, Koob balked toward first, Oldring taking third and Mullen second. Nunamaker hit to Lavan, whose throw beat Oldring to the plate. Oldring was run down, but Mullen took third. Nunamaker making second. Alexander flied out to Marsans and New York had lost its best chance to tie the score or take the lead. New York's run resulted from a base on balls, a sacrifice and a single. Marsan's batting was a feature. He doubled in the fifth and came home on Lavan's single with what proved to be the winning run.

The second game was a pitchers' battle between the veteran Eddie Plank and Fisher, with Plank having the better of it. St. Louis scored the only two runs of the game in the third when Siler singled, scoring Lavan and Austin. New York, 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—1. St. Louis, 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 0—2. Detroit-Boston.
DETROIT, July 31.—Boston hit Mitchell for 10 hits in four innings yesterday and easily defeated Detroit, 9 to 3. Cunningham, who succeeded Mitchell, did much better, the visitors making only one run off his delivery. May's work in the box for Boston was good at all times. Viti handled several difficult plays at third base. Score:
Boston, 9 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—9.
Detroit, 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—3.
Batteries, Mays and Apswe; Cunningham, Mitchell and Baker.

SHORT SPORT
The Yanks took an awful tumble. Losing four straight games to the Browns dropped the Donovans into third place. The Red Sox are now leading the bunch with the White Sox right on their heels.

The Browns in seventh place are only 7 1-2 games behind the leaders.

The White Sox found the Athletics an easy bunch. They took both parts of the double-header, making four games in two days.

The Nationals finally won a game on the western trip. But it took them 10 innings and Walter Johnson to subdue the Indians.

Bryan Boys Lose To Independent Team Yesterday

The Independents had little trouble in taking the Bryan base ball team into camp, yesterday afternoon, at Murphy street park. At the finish of the contest the score was 12 to 6 in favor of Lima. The locals throughout the game easily showed their superiority over the visitors.

Wonsettler, who started the game for the visitors, was unable to withstand the onslaught made by the heavy hitters of the Lima team. During the one and a third innings that he performed in the box the locals showed their liking for his curves by annexing four hits of his delivery. Mason who pitched the remainder of the contest let the locals down with eight hits.

The Bryan boys went down without obtaining a hit in their half of the first inning. However, the Lima boys were not so considerate. They scored two runs in their half of the same inning. Castello the first man up singled to right. He scored when Long slipped a roller through the infield. Long scored when Brown fumbled Reynold's wicked grounder.

The visitors did nothing in the second inning, but in the third inning they looked like a real ball club, when they tied the score. Fritz, the first man up reached first on Dickey's error and scored on Mason's single to center. Although the next two men struck out, singles by Stough and P. Brown and a three base hit by J. Brown allowed the visitors to count the remainder of the five tallies.

The locals came back strong in the fourth inning and again took the lead, when they scored six runs on two hits and misplays of their opponents. The Lima lads scored the final tally of the game in the fifth inning. The visitors made their final counter in the ninth inning.

Castello and Reynolds for the locals were the shining lights in both offense and defense. Castello led the Lima players in every department of the game. He scored three runs and registered three hits out of four times at bat for an average of 750. His hits also drove in a number of runs.

In the defense he tore off a number of running catches which cut off several tallies for the visitors. The speed with which he negotiated bases during the game, kept the opposing pitcher on nettles. In the first inning he went from first to third on Long's infield hit.

Wilson Is Again In Cub Suit

CHICAGO, July 31.—Fans of the type who can tell a manager when to take a pitcher out and who to put on the third sack defied the hot weather to remark "I told you so" anent the trade that puts Art Wilson, ex-Federal, back into the ranks of the Cubs. They never had a doubt but that the Cub management had made a bum guess when they permitted the catcher to go and retained Archer and Fisher for back stopping. Catcher Elliot from the Pacific Coast is due to join the Cubs any day but no intimation is given as to whether Archer will be the other man to go. Fisher and Frank Schulte have gone to New York to report to Manager Callahan. Schulte was one of the idols of the Chicago fans and a member of the "500 club" composed of players who took part in 500 games as part of the machine that Frank Chance developed.

Like home cooking after a trip—they satisfy!

When you've been away awhile, home cooking does taste good—it satisfies! What home cooking does for your hunger, Chesterfields do for your smoking—they satisfy!

Yet Chesterfields are mild, too!

This is a new thing for a cigarette to do—satisfy, and still be mild! If you want this new kind of enjoyment that smokers are raving about, you can get it only in Chesterfields.

Why?

Because no other cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend!

MARKETS

STRONGER TONE IS SHOWN ON WALL ST

NEW YORK, July 31.—Trading in the stock market continued quiet at the opening today with changes in prices confined to fractions. There was only one sale of Lehigh Valley in the first 15 minutes, that stock opening at 77 1/4, a net decline of 1/4. Third Avenue yielded a point to 61 1/2 on sale of a few hundred shares. Brooklyn Rapid Transit opened unchanged at 34 1/2. There were no transactions in the Interboro issues. Changes in other issues were nearly in all cases in the shape of moderate advances. Westinghouse rose 1/4 to 56 1/2, Maxwell 1/2 to 81 1/2, and American Beet Sugar 1/4 to 29 1/2.

The only significant trading was in Maxwell Motors, in which dealings were fairly large.

Many stocks developed a strong tone in the late forenoon, when advances of a point or more were recorded. Business was professional. The war order stocks again became prominent, because of reports of new contracts. Baldwin Locomotive advanced 1 1/2 to 71 1/2. Industrial Alcohol rose 1 1/2 to 109 1/2, and gains of around a point were recorded in American Locomotive, Crucible, American Car Foundry and many others.

Steel common rose 1/4 to 87, and Marine preferred a point to 86 1/2. Tennessee Copper sold at 26 1/2, a net gain of 1/4. Lehigh Valley declined to 77. Money loaning at 2 1/2 per cent.

CHINESE PRESIDENT IS CHARGED WITH NEGLIGENCE OF DUTY

Financial Irregularities and Suspension of Specie Payments Named.

Policy of Li Huan Hung is Distasteful to Extreme Republicans.

PEKING, July 31.—Chinese public opinion has been in a strangely unformed state since the death of Yuan Shi Kai. The passing of the would-be emperor president was hailed with rejoicing rather than sorrow and efforts to enforce mourning have been somewhat farcical.

Every day it becomes clearer that many of the leaders of the revolution in the south, who declared Yuan Shi Kai's retirement was the chief end they sought, had personal ambitions and are not giving Li Yuan Hung the support which might reasonably be expected of them.

Many of the provinces have refused to join the union and new demands are made upon the president almost daily by political leaders in the rebellious provinces. Liang Shi-Yi and Chow Tsu Chi, the two members of the government who have had most to do with finances in China have both resigned under fire.

The former was head of the financial council and director general of the Bank of Communications. The latter was formerly minister of commerce and agriculture, but had for a short time, served as minister of finance. Both of these men were close advisers of Yuan Shi Kai and are regarded by foreigners as two of the ablest leaders in China.

Liang Shi Yi has been the storm center of criticism for many months, and recently the republican press has assailed him bitterly. The board of censors has made an adverse report on his administration, charging misfeasance and malfeasance in office.

He is accused of various financial irregularities and is blamed with the shortage of hard money, which made it necessary to suspend specie payment on the notes of the Bank of Communications and the Bank of China.

Tuan Cai Jui, the premier, is also being attacked by the republican press and charged with an unwillingness to have President Li Yuan Hung issue a mandate restoring the old Nanking provisional constitution and reconvening the national assembly provided for by that constitution.

While bitter criticism has not been directed as yet towards President Li Yuan Hung, there are many who are lukewarm in his support. Li Yuan Hung's position in extremely difficult. He has inherited a depleted treasury and a thoroughly disorganized government. Three factions are endeavoring to dominate Chinese affairs; one of these is controlled by the Manchus of North China, the Yangtze valley section is dominated by military leaders along the Yangtze and the far south is dominated by Canton leaders. All these men are playing at cross purposes and efforts to harmonize them are extremely difficult.

The old national assembly which Yuan Shi Kai abolished and which it is now suggested should be reassembled, contained about 800 members, divided into an upper and lower house. This body was extremely unwieldy and turbulent. Consequently its reconvention at this time is dreaded by many temperate leaders.

The republican press is daily publishing lists of members of the old assembly who were prominently identified with the monarchical government and consequently are regarded as unfit for membership in a legislative body of the republic.

Should the old assembly be reconvened, it will probably be done so temporarily and for the purpose of having it enact laws which will make it possible to convene a smaller legislative body.

Premier Tuan Cai Jui has taken the position that President Li Yuan Hung should not attempt government by mandate, after the manner adopted by Yuan Shi Kai. The premier has not unqualifiedly position clearly but is apparently unwilling to have Li Yuan Hung declare the constitutional compact Goodnow constitution void by mandate, thus restoring automatically the Nanking provisional constitution, the original constitution of the republic. The premier's view is that a legislative body must pass upon constitutional questions. His policy, apparently, is one which contemplates long delay. This is extremely distasteful to the extreme republicans who insist that an immediate step must be taken to save the republic from further disaster.

SAN ANTONIO WILL STAGE EXPOSITION COVERING 200 YEARS

Despite Border Trouble the City Prepares for Big Show in 1918.

Expect to Have Mexican Government Participate; Carranza Favorable.

By Frederic J. Haskin.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—San Antonio, Texas, a city much in the public eye these days as the headquarters of Major General Frederick Funston, has completed ambitious plans for the staging of a Pan-American exposition in 1918 in celebration of its two hundredth birthday.

The fact that relations between the Washington and Mexico City governments have been somewhat strained has not discouraged the Texans. Their plans were in process of development months before President Wilson recognized the de facto government of General Carranza last October, and they are confident that by November, 1918, when the exposition will open, the rehabilitation of Mexico will have reached a point where such an exposition will be welcomed by all interested in the economic progress of the republic south of the Rio Grande. Moreover, General Carranza is familiar with the plans of the Texans and months ago pledged his fullest cooperation, and the participation of the Mexican government.

From a standpoint of Pan Americanism the Texans feel that their largest city is the logical site in the United States for an exposition intended to cement the social and commercial relations between the Americas. San Antonio has always, throughout its 200 years of experience, occupied an important place as the gateway to Mexico and Central America. Within a few miles of the Mexican frontier it has long been an American metropolis for the people of that nation who visit the United States for business or pleasure. It is a city that has much of the flavor of Latin America, one where Spanish is spoken as fluently as English. Its buildings are of Spanish architecture, while its Alamo and its missions remind one of the days when the Spanish or Franciscan fathers were dominant figures. Climatically it is similar to Mexico City and as a result every winter thousands of tourists from the north come to enjoy its climate.

It will be 200 years in 1918 since the Franciscan fathers came out of Mexico to establish at San Antonio the outposts of Christian civilization. Prior to that time many exploring parties had passed through what was then an untamed wilderness, but no formal efforts were made to colonize or develop the country until 1718.

The exposition will be devoted primarily to developing closer commercial and social relations between the United States and the other republics of the western hemisphere. Other sections of the country have held great expositions in the past, but will be the first time that Texas and the southwest have attempted a movement of this kind.

The Texans feel that the European war is over, and will continue to offer after the war has ended, unparalleled opportunities for the cultivation of more intimate associations with the nations to the south. It is expected that at this exposition will be displayed products not only of the United States but of every country in Spanish America. Thus the cause of constructive Pan Americanism will be furthered, to the benefit of all concerned.

Congress has already extended federal recognition to the Texas Bi-Centennial and Pan American exposition, and has authorized the president to invite all the nations and countries of America to participate in the exposition. The president has signed the joint resolution to this effect and in a few weeks he will be requested by the Texans to issue his formal proclamation. Then the wheels of the state department will be set in motion and the several ambassadors and ministers in Central and South America will formally call the attention of the countries to which they are assigned to the exposition and will request their participation.

Prior to the passage of the resolution by congress, President Wilson, Secretary of State Lansing, Secretary Redfield of the department of Commerce and other high officials had expressed their interest in the proposition and had pledged their support. Secretary Lansing characterized San Antonio "as the best exemplification in this country of Pan Americanism, in which we are peculiarly interested at the present time, and which is drawing the various republics of this hemisphere together."

"Undoubtedly," Mr. Lansing told a party of Texans, "an exposition of the kind you propose, devoted entirely to the Pan American idea, will accomplish much good."

In addition to Secretary Lansing's interest the Texans have enlisted the active support of Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce, Assistant Secretary Sweet and other officials of that department, all of whom are confident that the Texas Bi-Centennial and Pan American exposition will be of material assistance to them in introducing goods "Made in U. S. A." to the South and Central American markets. Another cabinet officer who is interested in the success of the exposition is Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo who returned recently from a trip to South America. Mr. McAdoo hopes some day to see San Antonio the last big American stop on the New York to Buenos Aires railroad.

From a commercial standpoint the San Antonio exposition has been given nation-wide endorsements by Chambers of Commerce in every part of the country. The Texans realize that if their exposition is to display successfully the commercial resources of this country it must have the active support of these business organizations, and as a result they inaugurated a campaign several months ago which was calculated not only fully to inform business men of their plans, but to win their hearty support.

San Antonio plans to stage an exposition with the physical valuation of from $5,000,000 to $8,000,000. It does not pretend to offer an exposition of a similar size and scope to the expositions at Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco, but it does plan to stage a show that from a Pan American standpoint will give to the world the most complete Pan American exposition ever opened. And to accomplish this a commission will leave for South and Central America shortly after the president's proclamation is issued to supplement the state department invitation.

The necessary ground for the exposition has already been tendered by the City of San Antonio. Funds for the improvement of the property will be raised through the voting of municipal bonds in San Antonio, the sale of stock throughout Texas, an appropriation by the Texas legislature, the sale of a special coin and by other methods.

In one respect the Texans when they came to Washington seeking recognition for their exposition presented a unique proposition to congress. Unlike other expositions San Antonio did not ask that congress make an appropriation for the maintenance and support of the exposition. They pledged themselves not to ask for funds for this purpose. All they sought was government recognition and the assurance that the United States government would make proper and suitable exhibition of its resources. The Texans were successful in their quest and the resolution embodying their request passed both houses by unanimous consent.

DOCTOR SULPHUR CURED THESE CHICKS.

A woman writing in Farm and Fireside about gaping chicks says: "Here is my simple remedy for gaping, which is a relief to both chickens and the poultrywoman in charge. I use a large teaspoonful of flowers of sulphur mixed with about a pint of cornmeal or any mash food. This quantity is sufficient for 12 chicks, to be fed three mornings in succession, then omit three days. Continue the treatment until you see good results. My remedy was sent to a Wisconsin poultrywoman who reported that it had saved her more than $500, as she had raised about 400 turkeys for market."

SWIFT & CO. PENSION PLAN.

Two million dollars was the gift made by Swift & Company to their employees today. Announcement of the accumulation of this sum during the past six years in the form of a pension fund occasioned much gratification to workers in the plants and branch houses in all cities where it was made simultaneously. It is estimated that more than 30,000 men and women are eligible, in time, to come under the provisions of the fund, which becomes active August 1. One of the striking features of the plan as outlined is that the employees do not contribute to the fund, the company furnishing absolutely all money needed to pay pensions. In this connection it is expected that Swift & Company will be called upon to pay $400,000 a year in addition to the income from the fund, in order to meet the demands.

In Chicago alone 8,000 persons will come under the plan as outlined. Of these a number are already eligible and their cases will be passed upon by the board of pension trustees within a comparatively short time.

GUARDS FIRE AT RAIDERS.

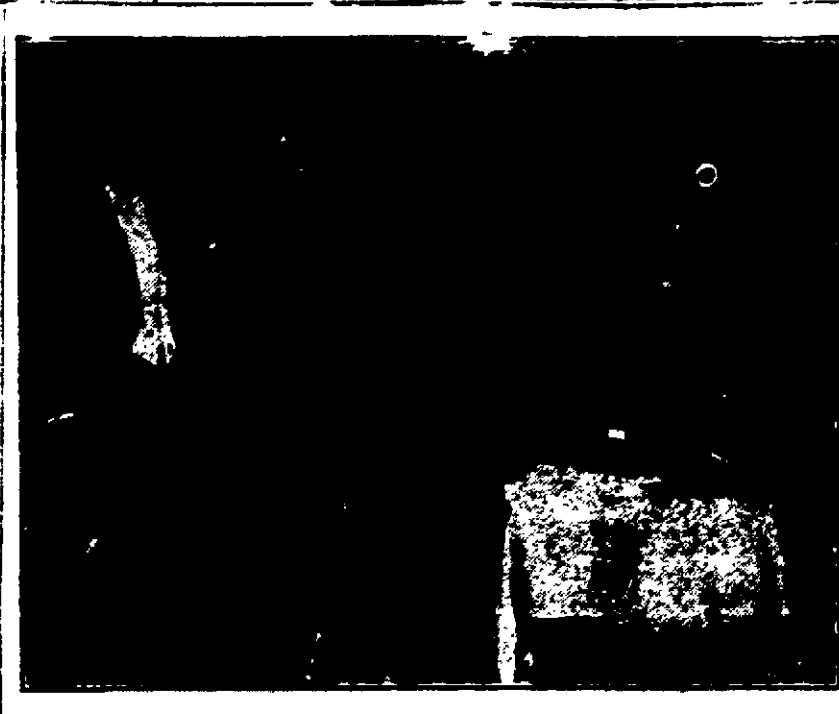

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, July 31.—Several shots were exchanged between outposts and guards at the camp of the First Illinois cavalry and supposed Mexican bandits who apparently were attempting to raid picket lines of cavalry horses. So far as is known here there were no casualties on either side. The shooting took place two and one-half miles north of Brownsville.

During my absence from the city with the National Guard, Dr. Heery, my partner, will be in the office and will take charge of all my work. Please pay all bills owed to me personally before January 1, 1916, at the office as promptly as possible. Bills due since January 1, 1916, will be paid at the office as usual.

POINT POINTS KNIFE, LIMA LOCOMOTIVE FINED $5 AND COSTS ANNUAL EXCURSION

William Point, arrested Saturday night on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, received a hearing in criminal court this morning. He was found guilty of the charge and fined $5 and costs.

According to Plainclothesmen Roush and McCoy who made the arrest, Point attacked them with a knife when they attempted to place him under arrest. Although neither of the officers were injured in the struggle to subdue the prisoner, McCoy's coat sleeve was slashed.

How to Prevent Croup.

Every effort should be made to prevent the attacks by giving the child a light supper and plenty of fresh air at all times. The child should be warmly clad when out of doors. Especially the feet should be well protected and under no circumstances should the child be allowed to remain with wet or cold feet. Then watch for the first symptoms, hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at once and the attack may be ward off. This remedy is a favorite with the mothers or croupy children and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take. Obtainable everywhere. mo-wed-fri

BODY FOUND IN CANAL.

DAYTON, July 29.—Coroner J. W. McHenry is searching for relatives of Albert Jones, 35, whose body was found in the Miami and Erie canal here this morning. Jones had been in Dayton for several months, but no one knows his home. He had been dead several days.

"When living in Syracuse, N. Y., about two years ago I took two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they cured me of indigestion and constipation after I had suffered for months with these disorders," writes Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Badwinsville, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere. mo-wed-fri

For one day in the year, on next Saturday, the plant of the Lima Locomotive corporation will be at a standstill. Employees, their wives and families will go to Cedar Point, the occasion being the annual outing and picnic of the corporation. A couple of thousand people will make the trip to the resort, from the men and girls employed in the offices to the laborer employed as helper in the shops. It will be one big get-together meeting of employees and their families.

Three trains will leave, at 6:15 and 7 o'clock, over the Lake Erie & Western railroad. Dancing will be enjoyed in the big pavilion; there will be boat rides and bathing, sight-seeing on the Midway and prizes will be awarded for athletic events.

The committee in charge consists of H. G. Sharpley, chairman, F. J. Taylor, J. H. Copp, Edward Hoffman and Edward A. Hanner, treasurer.

MARRYING A BUTTERFLY

They have been gone nearly a month. I want you to find them," said Ethel, turning to the girl.

"Perhaps you will find them in your writing desk. I saw them there once when I was dusting and it was unlocked." The maid tossed her head angrily.

"In the writing desk?" repeated Ralph in amazement.

"Yes, I wish you would clean the desk out before I go. I may be charged with stealing the things that are tucked away there," was the impudent answer.

Ralph flushed as he noticed the officer checking a smile. They went below and Ethel unlocked the desk. The maid triumphantly produced the slippers from among the litter of paper.

"It takes those that hide to find," commented Ralph, trying to lay the blame for the disappearance of the slippers onto the maid, although he knew Ethel's sense of order would not be shocked even at keeping slippers in a writing desk.

It was decided not to prosecute the maid, but she was to leave the next morning. When Ralph kissed Ethel good-bye he said:

"I expect some of those delicious muffins for dinner, dear," and Ethel smilingly promised to make some. (To be continued.)

FAUROT'S PICTURES.

Last time today, Blanche Sweet will be seen in "The Dupe." "The Dupe" is a story of a young country girl who comes to New York seeking a position and is engaged as secretary to Mrs. Strong, a wealthy society woman, who is involved in a love affair with a young millionaire, Jimmy Regan, who has flirted with her merely as a pastime. She, however, believes he is in love with her and is anxious to secure a divorce from her husband, but can find no cause.

Jimmy meets the young secretary and attracted by her sweet, simple manner, falls in love with her. He feels that he must have an understanding with Mrs. Strong before he asks Ethel to marry him. Mrs. Strong gives an entertainment, and Ethel, who is anxious to look her prettiest before Jimmy and whose simple clothes are old-fashioned, takes money belonging to Mrs. Strong to buy a new dress. The theft is discovered. The girl begs Mrs. Strong not to disgrace her and promises to work until she pays back the money.

The thought flashes through Mrs. Strong's mind that this girl can be used to help her get a divorce and promises not to publicly disgrace her if she will help her by permitting herself to be found dining alone with Mr. Strong. The events following form an exciting climax to this interesting story.
